Consumption Cured.

THE JUDGE OF HANOVER Tim. Howard suffered for three years with lung and throat troubles, and last sering was thought by his neighbors to b lying. I heard of his condition and gove him A. B. C. Tonic. Its effect was magical. In a very short time he was able to leave his bed, and now regards hir self a well man. Others in this vic-nity have taken the "Tonic" with prenounced benefit.

feverish fancy of an unfortunate fellow creature, whose sands of life were nearly the Abbott seasons in that city, and never monary affaction which is now ending his days, he came to California in hopes of being benefitted by the change of climate. He gained strength and vigor for a time, and was able to accept light employment, but not for long. For weeks he has been bed-ridden. With hope of life gone, poor Boost bad little to wish for beyond a speedy ter-mination of his sufferings until Emma Abbot began an engagement at the Baldwin theatre. The young man read every crit-cism that the press afforded, and with the reading came a longing for "The Last Ross of Summer "

He implored his physician and refr less for permission to attend just one performance of Flotow's masterpiece. The man of medicine pronounced judg-ment that Boost could not live to make the i urney between his bed and the theatre. It was impossible—he was too ulterly h-lpless to even walk to a carriage. The dying man, usually tractable and gentle, was persistent in refusing to be re-

The introduction was a most too much for the invalid. Joy came near killing in this instance. It was several minutes before he recovered sufficiently to even attempt to express his gratitude, and then his visitor re-

'Save your strength, my friend; you have but little left, and use it in making your peace for the life to come."

The strange interview was between the wo alone, and it lasted for nearly an hour. Then Boost's friends were summoned for the song. There was no stage, no costuming, and all the properties but one were lacking. In he left hand the actres; held a blush rose, and Has removed his office to 1331 F street n. w. with the notes the patals fell to the floor, one by one-

His were the only dry eyes in the room. It is doubtful if more pathos every entered into any composition that Mise Abbott ever attempted.

At the end Boost dropped back utterly exhausted. The strain was too much, and for a few moments it was feared that the excitement had killed him. He rallied suffi-ciently leter on to say good-bye and express his thanks, and in the evening he psuciled a request that the leaves of the rose be preserved and sent to his mother in Detroit. - San Francisco Examiner.

Wake Up.

If you wake up in the morning with a bitter or bad taste in your mouth, Languor, Dull Headache, Despondency, Constipation, take Simmons Liver Regulator. It corrects the bilious stomach, sweetens the breath and cleanses the furred tongue. Children as well as adults sometimes cat something that does not digest well, producing Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Restlessness, or Sleeplessness-a good dose of Regulator will give relief. So perfectly harmless is this remedy that it can be taken by the youngest infant or the most delicate person without injury, no matter what the condition of the system may be. It can do no harm if it does no good, but its reputation for 40 years proves it never fails in doing good.
